

With lust,
this touching is the only goal.

and you don't mind touching even though they are totally gross.

Love and lust are not as separate as we often think...

sexual attraction
can be part of Love.

It is human nature
to want to be close to Someone we like...

to touch them,
and be touched by them.

If in doubt,
ask yourself this question:

would I still love them
if they were covered in vomit?

HOW to LOVE

Natalia Fadul
& Tiffany
ask:

What is the difference between Love & Lust?

This can make it difficult to know whether you like someone beyond sexual attraction.

Love goes beyond lust;
you like the person themselves.
